C-HORSE CONSULTING

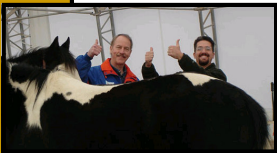

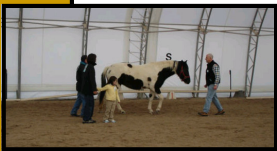

C-Horse Consulting, experts in Human Services, Psychology and Equine Assisted Learning (EAL), supports corporate businesses in improving employee productivity and meeting corporate goals by:

- assisting to build communication skills
- promote unity
- nurture professional development
- inspire
- motivate
- develop team rapport
- break down barriers
- foster relationships
- relieve stress.

C-Horse Consulting was "able to relate all comments to how it would be useful for employees and employers as a tool in business and life."

—Anastasia Remmes from Mommy's Merry-Go-Round

C-Horse Consulting develops strong teams and improves business relationships by demonstrating how interactions consciously and subconsciously influence decisions utilizing EAL, which is using experience to gain in knowledge or skill utilizing horses.

Learning with the assistance of horses can also improve personal relationships by increasing understanding and awareness of how other people approach and solve problems and challenges.
