Aellis-Sebastian Designs, Inc And Amarna-Kiya Studios CO-OP Art Gallery And Performing Center To Raise Funds for Students With Special Needs

Aellis-Sebastian Designs, Inc., a Parker based designer of customized gift baskets, along with Amarna-Kiya Studios CO-OP Art Gallery And Performing Center, will host the Aellis-Sebastian annual "Unforgettable" Tea, Truffle, and Champaign Tasting Series Sunday, October 29, 2006. This is a Fundraiser to raise money for Amarna-Kiya Studios CO-OP Art Gallery And Performing Arts Center for children and children with special needs.

This event is the first to be held in Parker, CO. The fundraiser hopes to reach its goal to have 200 in attendance and raise $30K for the center.

This event will be held at the Canterbury Country Club golf course from 3pm to 8pm. There will be student programs, tea, truffles, champagne, silent auction, door prizes and live entertainment by a National Recording Jazz, R& B and Gospel artist Debra Ramsey. Artwork by 17-year-old artist Travis D, and presenter/soloist Amarai Huggins will also be featured. Tickets are $85.00.

"This is a very important fundraiser for our students," says Katherine House, founder of Aellis-Sebastian Designs, Inc. and Chairman of The CO-OP. "Having a place that children with disabilities can attend that encourages learning, creation, dance, singing, building, and discovering dreams is needed in our community." continues House.
